

CIA Employee Killed In Sports Car Crash

James R. Stockero, 25, of 934 Viers Mills rd., Rockville, was killed early yesterday when his open sports car struck the center island at the intersection of Viers Mills rd. and Ferrara ave. in Wheaton, flipped over and skidded 125 feet on his back, Wheaton police reported.

They said that Stockero was driving north on Viers Mill rd. alone in his 1963 Austin Healey Sprite when the accident occurred at about 6:40 a. m.

Kensington Rescue Squad workers found the car lying on its side in the southbound lane of the road. Stockero had been returning home from a day at the beach, his family said. Police said he apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

Stockero was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Stockero. He was a graduate of Richard Montgomery High School in Rockville and attended the University of Maryland for two years before entering the Army.

For the past three years he had worked for the Central Intelligence Agency and was attending night classes at the Benjamin Franklin University School of Accountancy.
